

Consent Letter Background Check

The following personal information of yours will be collected/ checked by Audi China Enterprise Management Co., Ltd., and/or its service provider Best Check, herein after as "Audi China" for conducting a Facts Check, for example, but not limited to: Name, date of birth, ID proof, work history, qualification/ educational background, non-criminal record, sanction lists.

For the purpose of conducting a Fact Check, Audi China will collect and store the collected personal information for 3 years according to applicable laws and regulations in P.R. China. Further, for example development purposes, assignments abroad, business requirements,... Audi China will share the collected personal information with other entities which Volkswagen is shareholder within China, Volkswagen AG/ Audi AG (which are located in the Federal Republic of Germany) and other Volkswagen Group entities ("Authorized third party receiver").

Data security is Audi China's highly concerned matter. However, if information is sent over the network, the security of the data cannot be completely guaranteed. Audi China will manage and safeguard your personal information, and use technical and organizational security measures which are in line with widely recognized industry standard to prevent your personal information from loss, theft or falsification.

You have rights to access, correct, delete your personal information, change the scope of your authorization, withdraw your authorization or cancel your accounts through contact channels. Please contact us through your HR Business Partner.

☒ I, 陈嘉俊 (name), hereby consent to the collection and use and sharing of my personal information by Audi China pursuant to and for the business needs/purpose as aforementioned; I reserve the right to revoke this consent at any time I consider necessary.

☐ I, _____ (name), hereby reject the requested collection and use and sharing of my personal information by Audi China pursuant to and for the business needs/purpose as aforementioned; I acknowledge my rejection will result in incapable of getting hired.